

PRIME LOCATION, SPECTACULAR VIEWS AND GREAT DESIGN AT 8 GLADSTONE

Over the past two decades, Downtown Toronto's west end has been undergoing a remarkable transformation as new condominium developments have been spreading along King and Queen, west of Spadina and Bathurst, bringing thousands of new residents to the area, as well as new retailers, restaurants and services.

Now the area west of Strachan and Ossington, known as West Queen West, has become the latest 'hot spot' for real estate. This is a prime location situated on the 24-hour Queen streetcar – just 10 minutes to the Financial District, and walking distance to everything – great shopping, restaurants, parks, farmer's markets, art galleries, schools, libraries, community centres and more. West Queen West is also known as the Art + Design District where you can find the highest concentration of art galleries, artist studios, arts & cultural activities in Toronto.
